Elite Guard Inc.
2104 -3961 52 Ave NE Calgary, AB T3J 0K7 Ph : (403)830-7772
Email: info@eliteguardinc.ca
www.eliteguardinc.ca

Violence and Harassment Prevention Plan

Employer name: Elite Guard Inc

Date: 29 June, 2025

Next scheduled review date: 29 June, 2026

Health and safety committee or representative consulted (if there is one): Yes_●_ No___ N/A___

Affected workers consulted (if there is no committee or representative): Yes_●_ No___ N/A___

Prevention Plan Content:

- In compliance with Part 2 and Section 392.2 of the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety Code, following are the measures taken by employer to eliminate or control violence and harassment hazards:

Elimination of Hazards:

- Enforce a no tolerance policy for all forms of violence and harassment in workplace.
- Limit exposure to high-risk environment & situations.
- Rearrange duties to avoid placing workers in an isolated or endangered positions.
- Follow safe work procedures.

Engineering Controls:

- Installation of security cameras at work sites.
- Communication over radio devices for continuous contact.
- Appoint safe zones for breaks.

Administrative Controls:

- Organize guards in pairs in high-risk situations.
- Clear, written protocols for dealing with aggressive individuals.
- Incident briefing forms and documentation process.
- Site-specific instructions that detail identified hazards at each location.

Procedures for Eliminating or Controlling Harassment:

- Confidential complaint system (e.g., HR email, direct supervisor reporting).
- Disciplinary procedures for confirmed harassers.
- Zero-tolerance policy stated and communicated to all.

Procedures for Eliminating or Controlling Violence:

- Pre-assignment hazard briefing for high-risk locations.
- De-escalation training for all guards.
- Emergency response protocols (e.g., calling police, using alarm systems).
- Rehearsed duties to avoid exposure to chronic hostile surroundings.

Awareness:

- Definitions of violence and harassment.
- Legal rights and responsibilities under Alberta Law.
- Role-playing and scenario-based exercises for high-risk situations.

Violence and Harassment Reporting Procedures: (As per Section 33(1) of the Alberta OHS Act)

- At Elite Guard, all workers must immediately report any incident of workplace violence or harassment to a supervisor, site lead, or safety officer even if no injury occurred.

How to Report:

- Verbally to a supervisor.
- In writing using the incident report form.
- By email to HR/safety team at adnan@eliteguardinc.ca

Reports should include:

- What happened, where, and when.
- People involved and any witnesses.
- Injuries or damage, if any.

When We Must Report to Alberta OHS:

- As required by Section 33(1), we will notify Alberta OHS immediately if:
- A worker is seriously injured or killed.
- The incident had the potential to cause serious harm.
- Call OHS Contact Centre: 1-866-415-8690

What Happens Next:

- We investigate all reports and take necessary action.
- Workers are protected from retaliation.
- Affected employees are offered support (e.g., medical help, counseling).

Investigation Procedures for Violence and Harassment:(Compliant with Section 33(6)(a–c) of the Alberta OHS Act)

Complaint Process:

- Informal resolution may be attempted first (if appropriate).
- If unresolved or serious, a formal complaint is submitted in writing.

Investigation Steps:

- As required under Section 33(6):
- A prompt investigation is started by a trained, neutral person.
- Information is gathered from all parties and witnesses.
- Results are reviewed, action is taken, and the complainant is informed of the outcome.

Follow-Up and Records:

- Support is provided to affected workers.
- Retaliation against complainants is strictly prohibited.
- All investigations are documented and kept for at least 2 years.

Confidentiality Provisions for Violence and Harassment Complaints

- We are committed to protecting the confidentiality of all individuals involved in a complaint or incident of violence or harassment:

Information will only be shared when:

- Required by law, or
- To investigate the complaint,
- Take corrective action, or
- Inform involved parties about the outcome of the investigation.
- All records, interviews, and reports will be handled discreetly and stored securely.
- Only those directly involved in managing or investigating the complaint will have access to information.
- All employees are expected to respect confidentiality throughout the process.